

Regarding the attempt to Weaken Indiana's Phone Privacy Law.
My understanding is that the Federal Phone Privacy Law was designed to provide some protection for persons in states without a corresponding law.
I don't believe the attempt by CBA should be allowed to override Indiana's stronger, approved law.
Please decline CBA's petition to allow 'business relationship' calls which are not authorized by Indiana's current law.

Sincerely,

Barry Clouser